FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.
- (iii) Requests for Confidential Informant Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of confidential informant records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(D), (b)(7)(E), and (b)(7)(F) [5 U.S.C.§ § 552 (b)(7)(D), (b)(7)(E), and (b)(7)(F)] and Privacy Act exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C.§ 552a (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records would reveal confidential informant identities and information, expose law enforcement techniques, and endanger the life or physical safety of individuals. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches and Standard Search Policy. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems, such as the Central Records System (CRS), or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. The CRS is an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. The standard search policy is a search for main entity records in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include a search for reference entity records, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files.
 - Main Entity Records created for individuals or non-individuals who are the subjects or the focus of an investigation
 - b. Reference Entity Records- created for individuals or non-individuals who are associated with a case but are not known subjects or the focus of an investigation
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Foreseable Harm Standard. As amended in 2016, the Freedom of Information Act provides that a federal agency may withhold responsive records only if: (1) the agency reasonably foresees that disclosure would harm an interest protected by one of the nine exemptions that FOIA enumerates, or (2) disclosure is prohibited by law (5 United States Code, Section 552(a)(8)(A)(i)). The FBI considers this foreseeable harm standard in the processing of its requests.
- (iv) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative "FBI file." An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.edo.cjis.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.

SUBJECT: OFFICIALS OF "THE NATION" MAGAZINE SUBVERSAL INFORMATION CONCERNING

in our over No investigation of "The Nation" magazine has been conducted by this Bureau. However, the 1949 report of the California State Senate Fact-Finding Committee on Un-American Activities on pages 621 and 622 states that "The Nation" has a long record as a liberal publica-It could not be described as communist, but it is so infiltrated with Communist Party (CP) policy that it serves the interests of the communists and confuses liberals on many issues.

It has periodically been critical of the FBI and the Director It has utilized services of former communists and nearcommunists as writers.

Set forth below are the results of a review of main subversive files and summaries relating to individuals listed on the masthead of the current issue of "The Nation":

George G Kirstein, Publisher. No separate subversive investigation has been conducted on Kirstein. He was married to Elinor Cecelia Ferry, a current Security Index (SI) subject of the New York Office, from January, 1947, to October, 1954.

One George Kirstein, possibly identical, was invited to a cocktail party to be held June 8, 1950, at the residence of two espionage subjects of the New York Office. One George Kirstein, possibly identical, corresponded in 1953 with a Russian espionage subject. Significance of contact unknown.

Kirstein spoke during February, 1960, at meeting sponsored by American Forum for Socialist Education, a non-membership discussion group aimed at uniting socialist forces in which the CP has shown some interest. Group meets very infrequent laft 66/ / - 90

RE: OFFICIALS OF "THE NATION" MAGAZINE

Committee (FPCC) according to subcommittee testimony of Taber and with people connected with Cuban mission at United Nations in March, 1960. A source advised May, 1961, that the names and business addresses (The Nation) of George and Jane Kirstein were maintained on addressograph plates at headquarters of the FPCC in New York.

Carey McWilliams, Editor. Carey McWilliams is currently on the SI of the New York Office. He has a long history of activity in various communist front organizations. Recently he has been associated with the FPCC and the New York Council to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Victor H. Bernstein, Managing Editor. The Bureau has never conducted an investigation of Bernstein. We have a number of references in file indicating contacts with various security and espionage subjects. He was in contact in 1945 with Gerhardt Eisler and Joseph Starobin. He has also been in contact in 1947 with Alfred K. Stern. We have no information that he has ever been a member of the CP.

Robert Hatch, Books and Art. Main files relative to the name Robert Hatch were reviewed and no identifiable subversive information could be located.

Marion Hess, Assistant to the Editors. Main files relative to the name Marion Hess were reviewed and no identifiable subversive information could be located.

Harold Clurman, Theater. Bufiles indicate Clurman was allegedly a member of the CP in 1941 and in 1945 was associated with a front organization. In 1947 he was allegedly one of the founders of an organization which produced revolutionary Marxist plays in the United States. Both he and his wife, Stella Clurman, were formerly SI subjects but both were deleted from the SI in 1955. Since then there has been no information they have been recently active in a basic revolutionary group.

Hilton Kramer, Art. Main files relative to the name Hilton Kramer were reviewed and no identifiable subversive information could be located.
